Where Everybody's Tuned In

121five.com Teams Up With AeroVents.com for Calendar Services

Anderson, Indiana, USA: 121five.com, the credible general aviation news site, where “Direct and Unfiltered” news comes straight from the sponsors to the public, to editors, authors, and publishers in the industry, has added the popular AeroVents.com events calendar to its Site Navigation panel. Now, readers can list their organizations’ events or plan for events around the world that pertain to their interests.

Tim Kern, Publisher of 121five.com, said, “It’s great to be able to have such a respected and enthusiastic partner on board for Calendar listings. AeroVents.com has an easy-to-navigate interface and a great reputation; and its reach is expanding every day. The diversity of its events is astonishing!”

John Zapp, President of AeroVents.com, added, “This is such a natural fit for us since we promote events, 121five.com promotes news. Going into our tenth year we couldn’t ask for a more reputable company and leader than 121five.com and Tim Kern.”

121five.com is a sponsor-supported, leveraged-output vehicle for the delivery of industry-direct information to aviation editors, publishers, and authors; it also includes heavy-content and often unique Features, either written expressly for 121five.com, or contributed by the site’s Print Partners, featured Organizations, and Marque Clubs, which use 121five’s public access both to promote knowledge of aviation and as recruiting tools for subscribers and members.
